

U.S. Immigration: National and State Trends and Actions

Acknowledgments

The Pew Charitable Trusts

Susan K. Urahn, executive vice president

Michael Ettlinger, senior director

Team Members

Ingrid Schroeder

Michele Waslin

Bilal Habib

Camille Galdes

Adam Salazar

John Burrows

The immigration and the states team would like to thank Diana Elliott, Lauren Forbes, Sarah Leiseca, Diane Lim, Edward Paisley, Jeremy Ratner, Michael Remez, and Gaye Williams for providing valuable advice and production assistance on this report. Frederick Schecker contributed Web support, and Dan Benderly, Kodi Seaton, and Juan Thomassie assisted with design. Jeffrey Passel of the Pew Hispanic Center provided valuable advice and guidance throughout the project. This report also benefited tremendously from the insights and expertise of external reviewers Cristina Rodríguez, professor of law at Yale Law School, and Shoba Sivaprasad Wadhia, Samuel Weiss Faculty Scholar, clinical professor of law, and director of Penn State's Center for Immigrants' Rights. Although they have reviewed the report, neither they nor their institutions necessarily endorse its findings or conclusions.

---

For further information, please visit:

pewstates.org/immigration

---

Contact: Sarah Leiseca

Email: sleiseca@pewtrusts.org

Project website: pewstates.org/immigration

---

The Pew Charitable Trusts is driven by the power of knowledge to solve today's most challenging problems. Pew applies a rigorous, analytical approach to improve public policy, inform the public, and stimulate civic life.